RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF NON-COMPLIANT AMENDMENT

Dear Sir;

I am in receipt of the identified Action 08/09/05 Action regarding the identified Application.

Please find enclosed a new submittal.

I also want to just mention that I question if this sort of Action is a good thing for anyone to be spending time doing. I've been at this since the early 1980's, and in recent years see the focus tending away from substance toward formalities, more and more. I feel that is the wrong thing to be doing in the Patent Office. I mean how much time and expense was spent in this matter correcting an extremely minor error that could easily be tended to as a neither here nor there sort of thing in a substantive action. That is my view. Of course I will continue to tend to this sort of thing when required to do so. But it does seem to me to be a use of PTO resources which could be far better allocated. And I know I've far better uses for my time. And as for an argument that I should not make minor mistakes--- I've simply deeper things in my focus when tending to Office Actions. If I focus on making no clerical errors, I will not be doing my real job, in my opinion. Oh well eh?

Sincerely,

JAMES D. WELCH
